

youth culture organisation at Hazelhurst Regional Gallery & Arts Centre

Youth Culture Organisation (YCO) was formed at Hazelhurst Regional Gallery & Arts Centre in 2008 from a group of young local volunteers. Its purpose is to help initiate events such as Youth Culture, an evening of MUSIC, ART and ENTERTAINMENT for young people and provide creative input for future events at Hazelhurst. LOOK AT US photography competition and exhibition is an example of the vision of YCO.

What do members of YCO do?

- attend meetings to provide a creative input into future events that connect youth to Hazelhurst programs (approximately one meeting per term). This may include:
- ideas for Youth Culture event, such as the band and art activities
- or ideas for art competitions for young people
- have an interest in contemporary art and culture
- respond to emails from Hazelhurst
- be enthusiastic about meeting other young people
- distribute flyers and put up posters at your school re future Youth Culture events, and tell your friends!

What will you receive as a member of YCO?

- instant membership of Hazelhurst Friends which entitles you to 10% discount on any class at Hazelhurst Art Centre
- invitation to attend artist and curator talks, including pre-opening talks
- free catalogues from selected Hazelhurst exhibitions
- the chance to plan and participate in events for young people at Hazelhurst!
