PART 1: INTRODUCTION

This Code of Conduct applies to members of Council staff, including the Chief Executive Officer. It is based on the Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW (“the Model Code of Conduct”) which is made under section 440 of the Local Government Act 1993 (“LGA”) and the Local Government (General) Regulation 2021 (“the Regulation”).

The Model Code of Conduct sets the minimum standards of conduct for council officials. It is prescribed by regulation to assist council officials to:

- understand and comply with the standards of conduct that are expected of them;
- enable them to fulfil their statutory duty to act honestly and exercise a reasonable degree of care and diligence (section 439);
- act in a way that enhances public confidence in local government.

At Council we believe in creating a thriving community of active lives connected to nature. Our organisational values support this purpose:

- Evolving: we see ourselves as being one with our community, and build strong connections based on an open and understanding approach.
- Collaborative: we embrace opportunity and change, championing new ideas and providing creative solutions to problems.
- Active: we have a can-do attitude and believe in delivering a positive contribution to our community.
- Respectful: we act with integrity and listen to all, operating in a transparent way that values what makes the Shire special.

Section 440 of the LGA requires every council (including county councils) and joint organisation to adopt a code of conduct that incorporates the provisions of the Model Code of Conduct. A council’s or joint organisation’s adopted code of conduct may also include provisions that supplement the Model Code of Conduct and that extend its application to persons that are not “council officials” for the purposes of the Model Code of Conduct (eg volunteers, contractors and members of wholly advisory committees).

A council’s adopted code of conduct has no effect to the extent that it is inconsistent with the Model Code of Conduct. However, a council’s adopted code of conduct may prescribe requirements that are more onerous than those prescribed in the Model Code of Conduct.

Councillors, administrators, members of staff of council, delegates of council, (including members of council committees that are delegates of council) and any other person council’s adopted code of conduct applies to, must comply with the applicable provisions of council’s code of conduct. It is the personal responsibility of council officials to comply with the standards in the code and to regularly review their personal circumstances and conduct with this in mind.

Failure by a member of staff to comply with Council’s Code of Conduct may give rise to disciplinary action.
