HAZELHURST HSC INTENSIVE WORKSHOPS FOR STUDENTS IN 2017

While ARTEXPRESS is at Hazelhurst students can develop skills and explore new expressive forms, by enrolling in a program designed for senior secondary students to extend their art practice and develop their body of work.

WORKING EN PLEIN AIR with NICOLE KELLY

This workshop focuses on a practical approach to drawing and painting en plein air, working outdoors in the gardens of Hazelhurst. Reference will be made to artists who work in this genre while exploring composition, palette setup, colour mixing, and mark making.

Sunday 26 February, 10am to 4pm Fee: $70, plus $20 materials fee

WORKING IN MIXED MEDIA with LOUISA CHIRCOP

This mixed media workshop will explore developing an image or idea working in a variety of materials. The focus is experimentally based with an emphasis on practical techniques to help consolidate images.

Sunday 12 March, 10am to 4pm, Fee: $75, includes some materials

Explore creative photography and manipulate your images with Photoshop through collage, colouring and layering. Learn to use your camera as an artistic tool through the use of composition, lighting and angles.

Sunday 12 March, 10am to 4pm, Fee: $74, maximum 7 places

SLIP CASTING with CLAUDIA CITTON

Broaden your ceramic knowledge by learning to slip cast using moulds. You will also explore a variety of simple and effective decorative techniques and surface treatments including slip, inlay, marbling, slip trailing, sgraffito, feathering and mono printing. Other techniques demonstrated include Japanese tissue transfer.

Sundays 19 & 26 March 2017, 10am-4pm, Fee: $ 140, plus $22 materials fee, maximum 10 places

SOLAR PLATE ETCHING with MATTHEW ABLITT

Explore solar plate printmaking, turning your drawings or photos into an etching. A great way to combine drawing, text and photos, the photo polymer plate is versatile and will allow you to produce work with a Pop Art influence. Produce a limited edition run of prints working with a professional printmaker using non-toxic techniques.

Sunday 26 March, 10am to 4pm, Fee: $70, plus $33 materials fee
