HAZELHURST HSC INTENSIVE WORKSHOPS FOR STUDENTS IN 2019

While ARTEXPRESS is at Hazelhurst students can develop skills and explore expressive forms, by enrolling in a program designed for senior secondary students to extend their art practice and develop their body of work.

THINKING INTO MAKING An acrylic portrait painting workshop with Abdul Abdullah
Join award winning artist Abdul Abdullah, exhibiting in Weapons for the soldier, Hazelhurst Arts Centre, for an artist talk and acrylic portrait painting workshop. The day will be broken down into three parts: an artist presentation and talk; drawing exercises including ratio, shape and proportion; a coloured acrylic portrait painting on canvas.
Sunday 10 March 2019, 10am to 4pm
Fee: $95, includes a materials fee

MIXED-MEDIA ART MAKING Senior secondary students with Christine Druitt-Preston
Develop your ideas and skills for a Body of Work using mixed media on paper. You will be encouraged to see the potential offered by everyday surroundings to develop a Body of Work that is technically and conceptually sophisticated, demonstrating sustained reflective engagement. Artist Christine Druitt-Preston has 33 years’ experience as a Secondary Visual Arts teacher and a Teacher of Art & Design at TAFE.
Sunday 17 March 2019, 10am to 4pm
Fee: $75, includes some materials

PHOTOMEDIA with Tom Hungerford
Explore creative photography and manipulating your images using Photoshop. Learn to use your camera as an artistic tool through the use of composition, lighting and angles. Create and enhance your artworks with Photoshop through collage, colouring and layering. Artist Tom Hungerford has been teaching photomedia at Hazelhurst since 2011.
Sunday 7 April 2019, 10am to 4pm
Fee: $74
